Criteria for Evaluation

Quality (70%) cum Cost (30%) Based Selection QCBS - 70:30

The technical quality of the proposal will be given weight of 70%, the method of evaluation of technical qualification will follow the procedure given in above. The price bids of only those consultants who qualify technically (Minimum Qualifying Marks: 60%) will be opened. The proposal with the lowest cost will be given a financial score of 100 and the other proposal will be given financial score that are inversely proportionate to this. The financial proposal shall be allocated weight of 30%. For working out the combined score, the employer will use the following formula:

$$B = \frac{C_{low}}{C} \times X + \frac{T}{T_{high}} (1 - X)$$

Where

C = Bid Price

C_{low} = the lowest of all Bid Prices among responsive Bids

T = the total Technical Score awarded to the Bid

T_{high} = the Technical Score achieved by the Bid that was scored best among all responsive Bids

X = weightage for the Bid Price as specified in the QCBS (0.3 in this case)

Technical eligibility.

The bidder for bidder should be undertaken similar type of work. The bidder should have the experience of successfully completed Eligible Assignments during the last 3 years ending last date of the month previous to the one in which EOI is invited. Documentary evidence in the form of contract/agreement shall be a prerequisite. The bidder/individual should have:

- The bidder should have supply, installation and commissioning, the project cost each not less than Rs.20 lakhs.

OR

- Eligible bidder for supply, installation and commissioning, completed for the project, (at least one of them should preferably in Central Govt./ Central Public Sector Undertaking/State Government/State Government Undertaking) project cost each not less than Rs.10 lakhs

3.1.6.0 Financial Eligibility

- The applicant shall have Average Annual turnover of Rs 30 Lakh or more during immediate last three (03) consecutive financial years. Applicant/Bidder having average annual turnover less than Rs 30 Lakh as mentioned herein above shall not be evaluated.

3.1 Short-listing of Applicants

Of the Applicants who have scored 60 marks and above out of 100, shall be prequalified and short-listed for financial evaluation in the second stage.

3.2 Evaluation of Financial Proposal

3.3.1 In the second stage, the financial evaluation will be carried out as per this Clause. For financial evaluation, total cost of financial proposal will be considered which shall be inclusive of GST and other applicable taxes, levies etc. at the time of bid submission. The payment show ever shall be made in accordance with applicable tax laws.

3.3.2 The Authority will determine whether the Financial Proposals are complete, unqualified and unconditional. The cost indicated in the Financial Proposal shall be deemed as final and reflecting the total cost of services. Omissions, if any, in costing any item shall not entitle the firm to be compensated and the liability to fulfill its obligations as per the TOR within the total quoted price shall be that of the bidder.

Under Quality Cost-Based Selection (QCBS) selection, the technical proposals will be allotted weightage of 70% (Seventy per cent) while the financial proposals will be allotted weightage of 30% (Thirty per cent). Proposal with the lowest cost may be given a financial score of 100 (Hundred) and other proposals given financial scores that are inversely proportional to their prices w.r.t. the lowest offer.

Similarly, proposal with the highest technical marks (as allotted by the evaluation committee) shall be given a score of 100 (Hundred) and other proposals be given technical score that are proportional to their marks w.r.t. the highest technical marks.

The total score, both technical and financial, shall be obtained by weighing the quality and cost scores and adding them up. On the basis of the combined weighted score for quality and cost, the bidder shall be ranked in terms of the total score obtained.

The proposal obtaining the highest total combined score in evaluation of quality and cost will be ranked as H-1 followed by the proposals securing lesser marks as H-2, H-3 etc.

The proposal securing the highest combined marks and ranked H-1 will be invited for negotiations, if required and shall be recommended for award of contract. In the event two or more bids have the same score in final ranking, the bid with highest technical score will be H-1. In such a case, an Evaluated Bid Score (B) will be calculated for each responsive Bid using the following formula, which permits a comprehensive assessment of the Bid price and the technical merits of each Bid:

3.3.3 The Selected Bidder/firm shall be the first ranked Applicant (having the highest combined score). The second ranked Applicant shall be kept in reserve and may be invited for negotiations in case the first ranked Applicant withdraws, or fails to comply with the requirements specified.

- 3.3.4 Nandankanan reserves the right to modify the evaluation process / relax any criteria of eligibility for the selection of bidders laid down in the EOI document, if felt necessary, without assigning any reason, whatsoever, and without any requirement of intimating the bidder so far any such change.
